Ms. Johnson, who previously worked for the credit union as a Visa Clerk, is excited about returning, and about being part of the Geneva community. “I love being at Reliant! I jumped at the opportunity to come back to the people I used to work with, and also to meet and make new friends within and outside of Reliant,” she said. “I really enjoy helping our members better their financial lives, and getting out into the community to help better the community as well.”

A Palmyra, N.Y., resident, Ms. Johnson spends her spare time judging cheerleading for Cheer Sports. In that role, she travels quite often, mostly to Canada.

Reliant Community Credit Union, which began locally in 1970, is a $442 million credit union serving more than 40,000 members.
