Devon Littlefield Hired as Financial Advisor for Reliant Investment Services at Reliant Community Credit Union

SODUS, NY—Reliant Community Credit Union recently announced the hire of Devon Littlefield as a new Financial Advisor for the Reliant Investment Services (RIS) program.

Mr. Littlefield comes to Reliant Investment Services from Citizens Investment Services at Citizens Bank, where he served as a Financial Advisor. In his new position, he will meet with members to review and monitor their investment plans, guide them through the vast array of investment choices, and help them to create and make adjustments to their personalized plans.

About his new role, Mr. Littlefield said, “I look forward to the opportunity to implement my 17+ years of industry experience, to sit alongside Reliant Community Credit Union members and their families as a trusted partner to help them create, implement and monitor their financial planning needs.”

In his spare time, Mr. Littlefield enjoys spending time with his wife and family. He especially enjoys the time he spends with his wife as they watch their two children participate in a variety of activities, including band, baseball, basketball, crew and soccer.
