However, we will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements we provide to you.

c. Choice of Law Disclosure

We may accept on your behalf payments to your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses (ACH) and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the state of New York.

This agreement is a supplement to certain deposit account agreements that you have already entered into with Reliant Community Federal Credit Union. Where this agreement is different from your account agreements, this agreement will control. "We," "our," "us," "the Credit Union," and "Reliant," mean Reliant Community Federal Credit Union, and "you" and "your" refer to anyone authorized to sign checks or make withdrawals on your account(s) and also to anyone you authorize to use a card. The failure of the Credit Union to exercise any of its rights under this agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such rights or any other rights available hereunder.

Reliant Community Federal Credit Union is not responsible for improper account usage. You are responsible for assuring that distributions from your HSA checking account are made in accordance with IRS rules.

Consult your separate HSA disclosure for restrictions on withdrawals, tax penalties and other important information.

Laws governing HSAs can change frequently, so you should consult your tax advisor to determine if you qualify. Reliant Community Federal Credit Union does not give tax or legal advice.

- Pre-Authorized Debits: You may authorize regular withdrawals from your Reliant HSA checking account to a third party.
- Automated Teller Machine (ATM) withdrawals if you have a Visa Health Savings Debit Card. (Deposits excluded.)
- Point-of-Sale (POS) transactions with a Visa Health Savings Debit Card when available by the merchant.
- Online banking transactions.

2. Confidentiality

We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers that you make

- in order to verify the existence or condition of your account for a third party (such as a credit union or merchant), or
- in order to comply with government agency or court orders, or
- if you give us your written permission.

3. Liability For Failure To Complete Transfers

If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions. We will not be liable, for instance, if

- through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money available in your account to complete the transaction; or
- the terminal or system was not working properly and you knew about the breakdown when you started the transfer; or
- the ATM where you were making the withdrawal did not have enough cash; or
- circumstances beyond our control (such as flood or fire) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken.

There may be other exceptions stated in your Health Savings Account Agreement.

4. Periodic Statements And Receipts

You will get a monthly account statement. You will receive this statement in the mail unless you have requested to receive it electronically through Reliant's online banking. When you use a Reliant ATM you may request a receipt identifying the date, amount, and type of transaction.

5. Error Resolution Notice Or Billing Errors

In case of errors or questions about your electronic transfers, telephone us at 800-724-9282; write to Reliant Community Credit Union, 10 Benton Place, PO Box 40, Sodus, NY 14551-0040; or email reliant@reliantcu.com.

Inform us as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after the first statement we either sent you or made available online, on which the problem or error appeared.

- Tell us your name and account number(s). Do not include your account number or any other confidential information in an email.

- Describe the error or transfer you are unsure about, and explain, as clearly as you can, why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error has occurred within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we may not credit your account.

For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error.

We will tell you the results within 3 business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in the investigation.

6. Business Days

For purposes of this disclosure, our business days are Monday through Friday. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays are not included.

7. Liability Disclosure

Tell us at once if you believe your card or personal identification number (PIN) has been lost or stolen. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down.

For PIN-based and pinless (debit option) transactions: If you believe your card or PIN has been lost or stolen, and you tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft, you will have no liability if someone used your card and/or PIN without your permission.

If you do not tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your card and/or PIN, you could lose as much as $500.00.

For signature-based and pinless (credit option) transactions: You will have no liability for unauthorized signature-based or Internet transactions completed with your Visa Health Savings Debit Card.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you or was made available online, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money, if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or hospital stay) keeps you from telling us, we will extend the time period.

If you have a joint account and both account holders have a Visa Health Savings Debit Card: Each card has its own unique card number and unique PIN; therefore, if you report the loss or theft of a card or PIN, only the card number that is reported as lost/stolen will be blocked. The other card number and PIN will remain active.

Reliant Community Federal Credit Union has enabled non-Visa debit transaction processing, and does not require that all such transactions be authenticated with a Personal Identification Number (PIN). These transactions are processed through the NYCE network, which is associated with your Reliant Visa Health Savings Debit Card. Provisions of this cardholder agreement relating only to Visa transactions do not apply to non-Visa transactions.

8. Address And Telephone Number
