

important information about procedures for opening a new account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law required all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person opening an account.

What this means for you: When you open any account, we are required to ask your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see and copy your driver's license or other identifying documents.
